

LOCAL HOLIDAY GIFT GUIDE

*Local gifts,
handcrafted with heart*

Newfoundland Wreath Co.

We sell all natural handcrafted Christmas wreaths that are harvested using sustainable foraging methods. We create custom designs and can ship throughout Canada.

Windswept and wild-harvested, the natural materials in our wreaths have been tested by the weather on the southeast coast of Newfoundland.

Using sustainably sourced Balsam Fir, Blue Spruce, Alder Twigs, Caribou Moss, Red Dogwood, Juniper and more, our wreaths will arrive on your doorstep made fresh and ready for you to hang.

We are keeping things simple for now by offering two types of wreaths: The Original Branch Wreath and the slightly more refined Town Wreath. We also offer the option of burlap “giftwrap” for stylish delivery.

Our wreaths are available in two sizes: 30” and 34”.

Orders can be placed at newfoundlandwreathco.com.

Kate Fudge Art

Get a unique gift for that special someone!

Kate Fudge Art cartoons, earrings and other gifts are handmade in Newfoundland, Canada, making for a cool local gift for anyone on your list!

KFA started as a custom cartoon commission art venture that has turned into a full-time job. Katie does a variety of things these days, making earrings, ornaments, cards, custom prints, as well as collaborating with other local NL businesses. She works from Corner Brook/Pasadena, as well as St. John's.

Katie has an assortment of NL-inspired holiday card designs and tree ornaments available on her site. katefudgeart.com | @katefudgeart

The SKS foundation

The SKS Foundation is a non-profit organization established as a legacy project for Susan K Shiner, to provide child care for families who identify having current and past experiences of trauma.

We have collaborated with 9 local artists for a holiday card fundraiser. All proceeds go directly towards our efforts to provide trauma informed childcare to support families in Newfoundland and Labrador. These cards would not have been possible without the featured artists generously donating their work for reproduction.

There are 2 different sets featuring 5 different designs. Each set contains 9 cards, 2 of each design, plus a bonus card featuring art by 8-year-old Olivia Luther. Collect them all!

Blaine Myles

Blaine Myles is a retired languages teacher and visual artist based in Newfoundland and Labrador. Their most recent works are predominantly of mixed media. Blaine likes to pair graphic design with natural elements of flora and fauna: plant matter, stone, sealskin and so forth. The subject matter of their pieces speaks to the rich visual landscapes of Newfoundland and Labrador, with the natural elements of their construction anchoring their larger and intrinsic “sense of place”.

As a minimalist by nature, Blaine often sees the world in silhouette. Less is more. The suggestion of shape and movement lends itself easily to the combined media of sealskin with watercolour and ink.

Along with the wall art, Blaine also creates a varied line of Christmas decorations and cards that are made with ink and sealskin.

A full inventory of Blaine’s work can be found at their website: blainemyles.ca.

Green Family Forge

In 1999, for the first time in over 40 years, a fire had been lit in the forge, making it fully operational again. Today, a blacksmith demonstrates how items are manufactured and a variety of items for sale are produced, such as fireplace pokers, letter openers, roasting forks, candle holders, coat hooks, sign brackets, hinges and planters.

Featured Products:

Flame Tip Coat Hook - Designed in a very traditional style, with its sturdy design and quality finish it would make a great addition to any room.

Whale Tail Key Chain - Meticulously detailed with superior workmanship, this key chain is a great collectible item for those who have everything.

Heart Hook - This classic hook will go with any decor, split through the middle to form both sides of the heart. It truly is a unique design.

The Cooperage

Since 2008 the Cooperage has operated as a functional living history museum where you can see the cooper at his work. Although the cooperage is a new endeavour for the Trinity Historical Society, production has begun on many items which would have been made at the time the original building stood.

Featured Products:

Spatulas - Handmade by our cooper, crafted with the same skill practiced for hundreds of years.

Door Stops - These traditional door stops were used in many Newfoundland homes over the years and continue to be used today.

Wooden Toys - Traditional toys such as these have entertained children for generations.

Janice Prim Woodturning

Upon retirement from a 30-year career in the automotive industry, I wanted a hobby to occupy some of my free time. I always knew my retirement life would involve woodwork of some kind and I chose the lathe as the first tool to experiment with. I spent many hours watching YouTube videos and learned to turn, one project at a time.

Yorabode

Yorabode hand makes home products, like candles, scented with only essential oils and foraged botanicals. Home is more than a look, it's a feeling. Our products are vegan, phthalate-free and made with all natural ingredients. Inspired by place, the scents are subtle, natural and evocative of our landscape.

Essential oil blend—A blend of pure essential oils and foraged botanicals distilled in-house. This can be used in your diffuser, on dryer balls in your laundry or in your DIY projects. If using on your skin, dilute one to one with a carrier oil such as jojoba or fractionated coconut.

Soy wax candle—All candles are blended and poured by hand. Burn time: 17-21 hours

Natural scent spray—This scent can be used to enliven interior spaces, washrooms, vehicles or yourself. Handmade using natural ingredients: distilled water, foraged botanicals and pure essential oils.

Emspired

At Emspired, we create beautiful art and jewellery inspired by the Labrador wilderness and our Indigenous heritage. We use clay, paper or sealskin in our original designs. Prices depend on the product.

Emily Best is a young Indigenous artist based in Happy Valley-Goose Bay, NL. She has been working with clay since 2007. Inspired by traditional elements of her Inuit heritage, she has diversified the mediums she uses in her line of crafts to include paper quilling and sealskin. She creates jewellery, framed art, and gift cards.

Emily qualified as the youngest person to display the provincial Crafts of Character logo on her work and at one time, distributed her Labrador berry themed products through 14 stores across the province. Her work was recognized in 2010 when she was awarded the Atlantic Canada Aboriginal Business Award for Cottage Craft.

Live Textiles

Live Textiles are naturally dyed, hand woven and hand finished by Megan Samms in her studio in rural Ktaqmkuk at the Ketalisk Sipu (Codroy Valley, Newfoundland). Samms' textiles weave together carefully considered fibres after applying natural dyes to them. Due to the nature of this method of producing colour, her palette is seasonal. She grows and forages plant dyes from the land around her.

As a cloth maker, a modern hand weaver and dyer utilizing organic and natural fibres, plant dyes, looms, spinning wheels and other tools of the textiles trade, she works to bridge the gap between fine and functional craft creating heirloom quality, deeply personal and detailed textiles for practical use at home, to wrap yourself and loved ones in, as well as to adorn your space.

Live Textiles handmade products range from $10-$2000. Gift cards are available.

Sarbur's Quilts

Sarah Bursey is a custom quilter located in Deer Lake, NL. Sarbur's Quilts started from a love of blankets and a worry that the traditional Newfoundland art of quilt-making could one day be lost.

Always using the highest quality fabrics to bring modern quilts to life, Sarah aims to bring warmth and comfort into your home this holiday season, or for any occasion. Sarbur's Quilts are made to last and to be handed down to loved ones, as all quilts should be.

Sarah is available for commissions for custom quilts, using the best quality modern fabrics. Prices start at $150 for a baby-sized quilt. Custom orders can be placed through Instagram @sarburquilts.

Running the Goat

Running the Goat, Books & BroadSides is a small press located in Tors Cove, Newfoundland and Labrador. The press began as a letterpress publisher, but increasingly its focus has been on publishing fine, commercially printed children's books that bring the high standards, quirkiness, wit, and intelligence of its letterpress-printed work to a larger production format: quality of design, materials, production, illustration, and text are all hallmarks of the press.

We believe that children deserve beautifully designed, intelligent, and engaging books: the books children read have the power to shape them, to cultivate the readers and the citizens they will become as adults. We also believe that truly fine children's books are intergenerational, and that a good story, firmly rooted in place, is all the more able to reach out to the world.

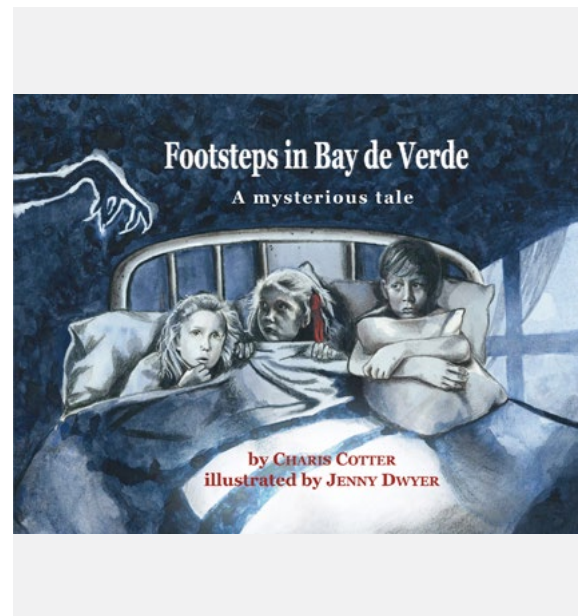

Running the Goat also operates a shop in Tors Cove with working vintage printing presses, a carefully curated selection of books from across the country, and a fine selection of original prints and cards from local printers. Visit www.runningthegoat.com to learn more about our publishing activities and shop online.
